Division Notes:

- General Guidelines and Entry Form are located online.
- The Girl Scouts consider participation in the Ohio State Fair a privilege and an opportunity to share accomplishments, interests and ideas. Registered Girl Scouts (K-12), Girl Scout troops and camps (day, resident, trip or troop) in Ohio are eligible to enter. Exhibits and displays must show high quality in effort, originality, neatness, and be consistent with the Girl Scout program. Exhibits and equipment will be supervised and every effort will be made to protect them; however, neither the Ohio State Fair nor the Girl Scouts will be responsible for any loss or damage to exhibits or equipment.

- Entering
 - How To Enter
 - Include the exhibitor’s address on the entry form (even if entry tags are to be mailed to the leader).
 - For Day Camps, please specify individual units. Similar items should be entered as a group entry; individual entries of similar items are discouraged, as girls will compete against each other.
 - Areas To Enter
 - Fair exhibits should be an outgrowth of good Girl Scout programs either in troop, camp, or growth of individual girl in pursuit of a hobby:

- Life Skills – includes activities that focus on physical and emotional health; nutrition and exercise; interpersonal relationships; the home; safety; work and leisure; and consumer awareness.
 - Customs and Traditions – includes activities that focus on developing awareness of the various cultures in our society and around the world, building pride in one’s heritage while participating and respecting that of others.
 - Science and Beyond – includes activities that focus on discovering the how and why of things; exploring and experimenting with many technologies that touch daily life; dealing with changes; looking to future events, roles, and responsibilities.
 - The Arts – includes activities that focus on involvement in the traditional arts; enjoying and expressing one’s self through various art forms; and appreciating the artistic talents and contributions of others.
 - Communications – includes activities that focus on conveying a story through words or visual media and sharing those ideas with others.
 - Out-of-Doors – includes activities that focus on enjoyment and appreciation of the out-of-doors, living and caring for our natural environment, understanding and respecting the independence of all living things.
 - Girl Scout Program – includes activities that focus on Promise and Law, Girl Scout history, tradition and ways, troop activities, and badge work.
- Entry Rules
 - Entry tags must be firmly attached to each exhibit. Please attach a 3x5 card, with the following information, to each exhibit:
 - Exhibitor number (from the entry tag).
 - Council
 - Age
 - Program level and troop number or independent designation.
 - How exhibit was made, why it was made, and the materials used to make it. Entries without this information will not be judged, but may be exhibited (space permitting).
 - On the back of the claim stub, include the class number (from the front of the tag), a description of the entry, and the exhibitor’s name.
 - Tags MUST be attached to the upper right hand corner of the exhibit. For notebooks, attach the tag to the upper most binder ring with a piece of string.
 - Multiple items of a project should have each piece marked with the Division number, class number, exhibitor number, and the number of pieces in the exhibit by marking each piece (example: 1 of 3; 2 of 3, 3 of 3, etc.).
 - Graded school projects may be entered; however, the grade and teacher’s comments must be removed or covered.
 - Group projects must be the work of at least two girls in a one-program level. A group project involving girls from more than a one-program level must be entered in the program level applicable to the oldest participating girl. The exhibit may be one article on which at least two girls have worked, or it may be a minimum of two and a maximum of six articles made by girls in a troop or camp project. A group project must provide a 3x5 card, including the number of girls participating in the project.
 - Computer related projects cannot be accepted on disc, CD/DVD (unless otherwise stated).
 - Exhibits cannot exceed 24”x 28”x 24” (with the exception of sewing projects, which may be folded).
 - Artwork, wall hangings, etc., must be within the stated size limitations. Murals that do not exceed 28” in height and that can be rolled, will be accepted and exhibited (space permitting). Art materials must be matted or framed and ready to hang. Single pictures must be mounted and equipped with hooks or hangers, or they may be stapled to the display. Wires, cords, etc., must be securely attached (no taped on cords/wires, and no paste on hangers). Valuable craft items should be boxed under glass. Unframed material may be stapled to display panels.
 - Special instructions for cooking entries:
 - Exhibits must have recipes (ingredients and directions)
 - Recipes must be legibly written or typed on a 3x5 index card, and attached to the upper right hand corner of the entry tag (w/the entry tag on top). You must also include the crust and filling recipes for pies, cakes, cookies, and frosting.
 - Jams and jellies must be processed by water bath and include processing instructions. Two jars of the same recipe for the jams and/or jellies must be entered (one for tasting, and one to display).

- The junior through the senior level cakes/cupcakes are to be creative using a cake mix with added ingredients (icing, egg, oil, and water are not counted as creative; you must also use other ingredients).
 - In cake decorating, the icing recipe must be attached.
 - The whole entry (i.e. cakes, pies, breads) should be provided to help maintain moistness.
 - For cookies, candy or cupcakes, only six each are required.
 - Use only disposable containers (with exception of food preservation).
 - Food items must be covered.
 - Refrigeration is NOT available, items that may spoil will not be judged or displayed.
 - Mailed entries must be mailed to:
 - Girl Scouts – Seal of Ohio Council, Inc., Attn: Kim Clark
 - 1700 Watermark Dr., Columbus, OH 43215
 - Special instructions for sewing - Clothing articles must be on a disposable hanger and have a snapshot attached showing the article being modeled.
- Closing Day
 - Baked goods and candy are not considered returnable.
 - If you require exhibits returned to you by mail or specified carrier (i.e. UPS, DHL, etc.), you must include a return address label and sufficient postage.
 - Arrangement for late pick-ups must be made with your council Fair committee. Fair management will dispose of items left after the close of the Fair.
 - Time schedules for pick-up will be communicated at drop-off.
 - Judging Guidelines
 - Attractive appearance.
 - Construction and durability for designed use.
 - Creativity.
 - Originality.
 - Honesty of material.
 - Workmanship.
 - Completed prior to the opening of the Fair.
 - Based on knowledge and experience gained by the girl/troop and evidence of a good troop program as set forth in the Girl Scout handbook.
 - Premium dollars may not be awarded for exhibits where there may only be one entry.
 - Premium ribbons will be awarded according to classification; honorable mention ribbons will be awarded; one ribbon will be awarded per entry.
 - Flag Ceremony Competition (August 3, 2008 – 12pm-4pm in the Rhodes Center) – Cash prizes and medals will be awarded. Competition consists of Traditional and Creative ceremonies. If any troop is interested in participating or needs more information, please contact Louise Lortz, 09573 Township Hwy 29, Upper Sandusky, OH 43351, phone: 419/294-4812.
 - Culinary Awards – Winner will be selected from all first place baked goods and food entries (in each age level) and will receive a plaque, rosette, and cash award of $25.00. The winner will be invited to the Awards Program on August 10, 2008 at 2:30pm. Group entries are not eligible to participate.
 - Girl Scout evening competitions – Come and compete with other Girl Scouts July 30 – August 9, 2008 from 6:30pm-7:30pm. Sign up daily by 5:30pm at the Girl Scout booth.
 - Talent Competition (August 2, 2008 – 10am-3pm on the Youth Discovery stage) – For information and/or if interested in participating, contact Jeni McMahan, 3231 Little York Rd., Dayton, OH 45414 at 937/626-3722 or talentcomposf@hotmail.com. This competition is open to girls of all ages and talent levels. Ribbons, plaques and cash prizes will be awarded to Troops and individual Girl Scouts competing in the following categories (including the Best Overall Performance Award):
 - Instrumental
 - Baton/flag
 - Vocal
 - Dance
 - Miscellaneous acts that are based on Girl Scouts values.
 - Speech Competition (August 4, 2008 – 1pm-3pm) – Open to Cadette and Senior Girl Scouts only. Speech must be 5-7 minutes on the topic of “Girl Scouts make the world a better place.” The speech must reflect an older Girl Scout talking to younger Girl Scouts. Top three participants will be awarded. The first place winner will earn the honor of presenting her speech at the Girl Scout Awards program on August 10, 2008. For additional information contact Bob Price, 2861 Houston Rd., Cincinnati, OH 45251 at 513/851-3769 or bprice.1@fuse.net.

- Girl Scout People's Choice Award – Vote daily July 30–August 9, 2008 for the Girl Scout entry you feel is best. Each voter will receive one ballot per day. The People's Choice Award winner will receive a certificate and rosette on August 10, 2008 at the 2pm Awards Program.
