FRAZEYSBURG, OH — Greig Christmas Tree Farm in Lake County not only walked away with the honor of exhibiting the Grand Champion Christmas Tree at the Ohio State Fair but they also exhibited the Reserve Champion Christmas Tree. This year's winning tree was a Canaan Fir and the Reserve Champion was a Blue Spruce. Brothers Jeff and Doug Greig and mother Betty Jean will have the opportunity to represent Ohio in the 2018 National Christmas Tree competition.

The trees in the competition were selected from trees submitted by growers from across the state of Ohio. They were also judged by a panel of judges consisting from The Ohio State University faculty. The primary factors considered in the judging included shape, fullness, color and overall appearance.

The trees will be on display at the Ohio Christmas Tree Association booth for the duration of the Ohio State Fair.

Other contest winners include:

Fir

First: Greig Tree Farm in Lake County
Second: Twinsberry Christmas Tree Farm of Wayne County
Third: Galehouse Tree Farm in Wayne County

Pine:
